1 TO ALL INTERESTED PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2
3 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Specially Appearing Defendant HARRAH'S
4 ENTERTAINMENT, INC. will and hereby does apply to the Court ex parte for an order striking
5 the newly submitted matter presented in KINDER's reply in support of motion to file an amended
6 complaint or, in the alternative, for a continuance of 14 days to allow Specially Appearing to file a
7 sur-reply and related pleadings addressing the new evidence and arguments raised in KINDER's 8 Reply.

9
10 This ex parte application is made in good faith and, good cause exists as is more fully set 11 forth in the attached points and authorities and supporting declaration. If the Court does not grant 12 this ex parte application and strike KINDER's newly filed evidence and arguments, Specially 13 Appearing Defendant's due process rights will be denied because it will not have an opportunity to 14 address the newly raised arguments and new evidence submitted at the reply stage. Indeed, any 15 opposing party's due process rights are violated and a trial court abuses its discretion if the court
16 considers new evidence and/or new legal arguments filed for the first time in support of a reply
17 brief. (See, Beard v. Seagate, 145 F.3d 1159, 1164-1165 (10th Cir. 1998).) KINDER had ample 18 opportunity in his moving papers to submit evidence in support of his motion to amend and a 19 proposed amended complaint. However, in an effort to bar Specially Appearing Defendant's right 20 to present a complete opposition to KINDER's motion to amend, KINDER chose to wait until the 21 reply stage to provide this court with the proposed pleading and supporting documentation. In 22 addition, the new evidence submitted in the declaration of Chad Austin shows that Attorney
23 Austin's purported "investigation" of additional corporate entities to be named was not in good 24 faith as his new declaration includes "new investigations" which were conducted on January 17, 25 2008.

28 ///

1 This Court may not consider KINDER's new evidence and amended pleading without 2 allowing Specially Appearing Defendant's to file a sur-reply lest, Specially Appearing Defendant's 3 due process rights be violated. Violating Specially Appearing Defendant's due process rights by 4 considering such untimely evidence would result in grave prejudice and irreparable harm to 5 Specially Appearing Defendant.

6
7 In the alternative Specially Appearing Defendant's, requests this Court continue the 8 hearing on KINDER's motion to amend for 14 days to allow Specially Appearing Defendant's 14
9 days to file a sur-reply and related pleadings. In its sur-reply Specially Appearing Defendant will 10 address KINDER's newly submitted exhibits which should be stricken as factually invalid and 11 inadmissible pursuant to the Federal Rules of Evidence. Specially Appearing Defendant will also 12 address plaintiff's new jurisdictional arguments and the insufficiency of plaintiff's proposed 13 amended complaint.

15 This ex parte application is based upon this notice and the attached memorandum of points
16 and authorities, declaration of Ronald R. Giusso, and upon any oral argument as may be presented 17 at the hearing on this matter.
